Dear Cornerstone Cardinal Community,

I hope this week's letter finds everyone healthy and well. Here at school we recognize that despite knowing the schedule for the upcoming school year, there are many questions that are left unanswered that are critical for our families. I appreciate everyone's patience as we work through the myriad of challenges implementing in-school and remote learning plans that support the needs of our community. The purpose of this letter is to invite you to a Zoom meeting on Monday evening at 7:00 (link will be at the bottom of the letter) to discuss the details of the school day in our current plan, and to provide you with information on steps that you need to take as a family in the next week.

During that Zoom meeting we will be discussing several critical issues for the upcoming year, including:

- The daily schedule for both in-school and remote learning.
- How to select remote learning for the upcoming school year.
- Process for requesting specific remote learning days.
