

Dear Cardinal Parents,

I know this is last minute, but I wanted to invite everyone to join me tonight for a Zoom meeting regarding our COVID-19 school plans for next year. I will record the meeting, and make that link available on our school website. For those who are not able to attend, I will have an additional meeting next Tuesday night covering the same topic.

Tonight's meeting is only going to be sharing our planning process, and the topics that we are working through. It will not provide specific answers as to how we will be organized in the fall because we are waiting on answers that will impact our overall plan. As we were working today, I was thinking that many of our families might be interested in our thought process even if we weren't all the way through things. Since I am available tonight, I figured why not at least give anyone who is interested a chance to listen in.

A second purpose for tonight is to get feedback from you about what your concerns are for the fall. While I do not think that I will be able to answer many of the questions, I think it is well worth my time to hear your thoughts, worries, and concerns.

If you are interested in joining me tonight, here are the zoom details:
